REMARKS.—The market closes quietly. Flour unsettled, and sellers unwilling to yield to a further decline; prices of ordinary brands have declined about 25 cents, and superiors are now quoted at $9.50 to $10.50; extras $10.50 to $11.50; high grades extra $11.50 to $12.50. The market for Wheat is fair; offerings this morning of 302 bushels white, and 2788 bushels red, with sales of inferior white at 20¢, and prime at 25¢; red 21¢, 21½¢, 22½¢, 23½¢, 24¢ and 25¢, according to quality. For corn there was a fair enquiry, with offerings of 1104 bushels white and mixed; sales of 400 bushels at 11½¢, and the remainder at 11½¢ to 11¾¢. Oats steady; offerings of 1296 bushels, and sales at 6½¢ to 6¾¢. Rye quiet and unchanged. Corn Meal in good supply. Fish in good demand; one or two cargoes of Eastern fish have been received since our last, and the supply is fair. Plaster quiet. Fertilizers in demand for nearly all the various kinds. Salt steady, with a fair supply. Light transactions in Wool, at last week's figures. Butter is scarce and wanted; prices very firm. Bacon quiet and unchanged. Irish Potatoes in good demand. Apples in fair request. Eggs advanced. Onions scarce and high.

BALTIMORE CATTLE MARKET, Sept. 24.—Beef Cattle.—Prices to-day ranged as follows: Old Cows and Steers at 4.00 to 4.50; ordinary thin Steers, Oxen and Cows $4.50; medium to fair Stock Cattle 4.75 to 5.50; fair quality Bees 5.50 to 6.00; and the very best Bees 7.00 to 7.50 per 100 lbs., the average price being about $5.25 gross. The market closed moderately active at about the rates of last week for good Bees, with common and medium qualities were a shade lower.

Sheep.—The market has been well supplied during the past week, and the demand good. Sheep quiet active, for which quotations have slightly improved. Prices to-day ranged as follows: Good Sheep at 4.50 to 5.00 per lb. gross. Stock Sheep 2.50 to 2.75 per head. Lambs at 2.25 to 2.50 per head.

Hogs.—The supply of good Hogs during the past week has been barely sufficient to meet the demand, while there is an abundance of common light stock for the former quotations are fully sustained, while the latter are dull. Prices to-day ranged as follows: Common to good live Hogs 11.50 to 15.00 per 100 lbs. net.

COAL BY THE C. & O. CANAL.—There was dispatched from Cumberland, during last week, 19,767.16 tons of coal, forwarded by the following companies:

Central	2,684.16
American	3,654.07
Consolidation	2,649.12
C. & O. Co.	2,732.12
Borden	1,652.17
Hampshire & Baltimore	1,824.13
National	458.19
Total	16,967.16

WESTERN PORK TRADE.—The Cincinnati Price Current says:—"The advices from the Western States indicate that there will be a large increase in the pork crop the coming season. Stock hogs are plenty and in excellent condition, owing to the abundant pasturage during the summer, and as the corn crop is an unusually large one, and the general belief with farmers that hogs will be high, there can be little doubt that pork will be fed largely and liberally throughout the entire West."

Stocks at the Baltimore Board were again dull yesterday. Gold declined 1/4 per cent. selling at 141 1/4, which is three per cent. lower than on Thursday of last week. Governments have been dull during the week; the only sale yesterday was $3,000 5-20s 21 at 110. Baltimore State stocks have generally ruled higher. Tennessee 6s new sold at 69, and North Carolina 6s ex-coupon at 75; Virginia registered 6s old bought at 73.

In the Baltimore market Whiskey has further advanced—and we note early in the week sales at $1.47 1/2, and to-day reported at $1.52 for free.

LOCAL ITEMS.

STEAM CANAL BOATS.—A new plan of overcoming the difficulties that have hitherto prevented the adoption of steam as a propelling power on canals, which is likely to revolutionize the present system of inland navigation, was tried successfully at New York, a few days since, by a party of gentlemen connected with transportation companies, in presence of some members of the press. The invention, which was attached to the propeller General Siegel, consists of an ordinary screw fixed in a protecting frame, but attached, not to the shaft, but to a knuckle of iron between the end of the shaft and the screw blades. By this arrangement the screw is made to serve as a rudder and responds readily to the movement of the wheel. The General Siegel made several complete turns in her own length during the trial, and caused no greater disturbance in the water than would an ordinary sailing vessel, and far less than a canal boat fitted with large, unruddered. As a test of the value of the invention for steering purposes the experiment was perfectly successful and proved that the chief objection to the introduction of steam on our canals—the washing and wearing of the banks—could no longer apply. The Philadelphia Transportation and Freight Company, which has received a very liberal charter from the Pennsylvania Legislature, is building a number of canal boats to be fitted with this invention and run by steam between the coal regions and Washington, and Washington and New York. The boats will be 100 feet long by 17 feet wide, and will carry 170 tons of freight.

THE AQUEDUCT BRIDGE.—In the Georgetown Common Council, yesterday, the committee of conference, on the subject of the Aqueduct Bridge, after a meeting in the Aldermen's chamber, unanimously recommended that the Aldermen recede from their resolution; that the contract submitted by the special committee be approved, with an amendment providing that in case of the bridge being made a free bridge—whenever Congress or other authority shall purchase the bridge—within three years from the date of its completion, the Bridge company shall at once repay the amount of $25,000 loaned to them by the Corporation. A contract has been made, in accordance with this agreement, and it is said, the bridge will be immediately built.

TOTAL DARKNESS.—Total darkness again obscured the streets of this city last night, but whether from a defect in the gas works or in consequence of orders from headquarters, is not known. Whatever the cause, however, the effect was certainly exceedingly disagreeable, and a great many persons will thankfully regard any one who will prevent its recurrence. It would seem that if the lighting and extinguishing of the gas lamps were left discretionary with the watchmen who preambulate the streets at all hours of the night, the probability of the repetition of last night's and the previous night's utter darkness throughout all the thoroughfares of the city, would be materially lessened.

GOOD EATING.—To those fond of good eating, as most people about here are, because, like the inhabitants of the rest of the Southern country they have hardly any thing else to live for now, except to make preparation for immortality, the birds, and fish, and oysters, that abound, and are all in excellent condition, and sell tolerably cheap, render the passage of the floating hours by no means as uncomfortable as might be the case were Confederate fare the prescribed regimen. Fresh fish for breakfast, and a bird and oyster supper are cherished mementoes of former prosperity which, happily, Alexandrians have still vouchsafed them.

POLICE REPORT.—The Mayor's and different Magistrates' offices, this morning, presented a remarkable quiet appearance, there being no cases to be disposed of at any of the Courts, and the usual loungers there being absent.—The Mayor has returned from his temporary absence, and he and the Magistrates were at their respective posts, and no breaches of the Corporation ordinances had occurred during the preceding twenty-four hours, nor during that period had any citizens of the Commonwealth seen the necessity of "going to law."

BRANCH RAILROAD TO GEORGETOWN.—Mr. H. W. Brewer, the officer appointed by the Corporation of Georgetown to survey a route for the Georgetown branch of the Loudoun and Hampshire railroad, will commence next Monday to make a preliminary survey of the different routes proposed. The first route examined will be the Aqueduct route, and extends past Forts Whipple and Corcoran, and strikes the main stem of the Loudoun and Hampshire road near Falls Church. This, we understand, seems to be the favorite route of the majority of the members of the Councils of Georgetown.—National Intelligencer.

MIDDLEBURG AND PLAINS TURNPIKE ROAD.—The application of Major A. L. Rogers, President of the road, to the Directory of the O. A. & M. R. R., for aid in the construction of the turnpike, which we have heretofore noticed, has been laid on the table until the next meeting of the Board in November, when the Manassas Branch may be completed to Harrisonburg, and it is believed the Board have every disposition to assist in the construction of the proposed work, which will be an important feeder to the railroad.

AMBIGUOUS.—The statement in the Charlottesville Chronicle of yesterday, concerning a "fearful accident" on the Orange, Alexandria and Manassas Railroad, though intended as a joke, was rather ambiguous, and were it not corrected, might possibly do some harm; as the generality of newspaper readers don't have time critically to examine the matter they peruse. The train did run off the High Bridge at Mitchell's Factory, but it ran off the bridge onto the track, and arrived in this city on time.

UNION STREET.—It is hoped that such an agreement can be effected between the Orange, Alexandria & Manassas Railroad Company and the Corporation authorities as will speedily result in the extension of the late repairs of Union Street, which terminated at the intersection of Queen street, to Fisktown. A great deal of business is transacted on that end of the street, and its present condition is anything but creditable.

WASHINGTON FERRY.—The steamer City of Alexandria of the Washington Ferry line, which was undergoing repairs yesterday, and consequently not running, and whose place was temporarily occupied by the Wawaset, resumed her trips this morning.

ALEXANDRIA CANAL.—The lockgates that were washed out of the Alexandria Canal by low the basis, on Wednesday evening last, were all replaced yesterday evening by duplicates, which were ready, and the boats which had collected in the basin were let out into the river, and towed to the different coal depots along the wharves—where affairs this morning presented their usual activity.

FORTUNATE ESCAPE.—Charlie Brill, a King street, between Patrick and Henry, while playing with his brother, yesterday, fell out of the second story window, turned two somersets, but luckily alighted on the ground upon his feet, and escaped unhurt.

BALL POSTPONED.—The grand ball to have been given at the Potomac Gardens last night, and at which a challenge dance was to have been decided, and a clog dance performed, was postponed, in consequence of the prevailing inclemency of the weather, until next Monday night.

PROPERTY SALE.—The dwelling and store belonging to the estate of the late Thomas Grimes, on the road from the Alexandria Ferry to the Eastern Branch, on the other side of the river, was sold yesterday to J. Grimes for $1.175. Attached are three acres of land.

JUDGE MOORE, formerly of Kentucky, now of this place, who is in Cincinnati, was serenaded in that city on the 21st, and made an eloquent speech on the occasion, thanking the people for their kind and hospitable reception and compliment.

ACCIDENT.—Last evening R. Roberts Jr., son of R. F. Roberts, was thrown violently from a buggy in which he was riding, in consequence of the breaking of the vehicle. He was injured seriously but not dangerously.

HEAVY RAINS have fallen in the adjacent country during the last few days, and the rivers and streams are all high. The Potomac river is unusually muddy.

COUNTRY PRODUCE.—Nearly forty car loads of country produce was received by the merchants of this city this morning, via the O. A. & M. R. R.
